

AI Workshop Risk Assessment

Risk	Control/Action Taken	Risk level	Timing of Action
Trip hazard / available space	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Young people to be grouped onto specific tables / into specific areas of the teaching space when working. - Young people to be discouraged from moving around the room unnecessarily. - Hyett Education session leader to ensure that any extension leads are covered, secured and/or beyond the pupils' activity area. - Floor mats used in the session to be securely taped to the floor. - Hyett Education session leader to remind young people not to walk across any floor mats. - Any robots and iPads to be removed from floor mats before any large-scale movement of young people around the teaching space. 	Low	On the day of the event
Use of iPads	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Clear demonstrations by group leaders prior to each of the sessions. - Young people to be given instructions explaining the task and the commands to use on the iPad. - If appropriate, iPads will be locked into 'Guided Access' mode, limiting young people from accessing other apps. 	Low	On the day of the event
Trapped / pinched fingers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Correct handling of micro:bits to be explained and demonstrated. - Correct process for attaching motors and / or sensors to be demonstrated and explained. 	Low	On the day of the event
Choking hazard	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Young people to be encouraged to ask for help when separating building bricks and any other components that may be difficult. - Young people to be reminded to never use their mouths when separating components and encouraged to ask for help from Hyett Education session leader or other appropriate adults when separating any components that may be difficult. 	Low	On the day of the event
Electric shock	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - As all batteries are of AA type, there is no risk of electrical shock. - Maintain battery checks, ensuring no damage, bulging or cracks. 	Low	Ongoing and on the day of the event
Liquids	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Young people to be asked to place any water bottles well away from equipment for the workshop 	Low	On the day of the event

	Name	Position	Signature	Date
Risk Assessor	Antony Hyett	Teacher/Consultant		